P R O C L A M A T I O N

AMERICAN ART WEEK

WHEREAS, art is one of man's universal activities because it fulfills a need in men's lives not satisfied in any other way. Talented artists, such as Leonardo de Vinci in his painting of "The Last Supper", have contributed immeasurably to man's spiritual and esthetic development.

WHEREAS, we in South Dakota have also had our share of fine artistic talent, including the late Harvey Dunn whose paintings of early South Dakota so vividly portray the vision and courage of our pioneers. Another example is the well known Oscar Howe whose paintings of Indians depict the life of an important group in our state. In our churches, schools and homes, art enriches every South Dakotan's life. Without art our lives would be drab and poor.

NOW, THERE, I, Archie Gubbrud, Governor of the State of South Dakota, do hereby proclaim the week of November 1, 1961 through November 7, 1961 as to in some measure emphasize the value of art to all of us in the State of South Dakota.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Great Seal of the State of South Dakota to be affixed at the State Capitol this 26th day of October, in the year of our Lord, one thousand nine hundred sixty one.
